Massachusetts Inter-Service Family Assistance Committee

Who We Are

The Massachusetts Inter-Service Family Assistance Committee was established on 6 May 2009 under the direction of the Office of the Secretary of Defense and supported by Governor Deval Patrick and The Adjutant General, MG Joseph C. Carter. The Committee is represented by all Massachusetts Military Family Directorate Components to include: Army, Air Force, Navy, Marines, Coast Guard as well as all Reserve and National Guard Components.

Massachusetts ISFAC Council at the MA NG Military & Family Support Center, Wellesley, MA

Our Mission

The Massachusetts Inter-Service Family Assistance Committee is a voluntary military/community cooperative partnership organized to provide multi-component networking for information, assistance and training to ensure Total Force Family Readiness.

Our Goals

- Enhance existing Family Assistance delivery systems
- Provide assistance to both Active and Reserve Component Families from the nearest resource regardless of military affiliation
- Active and Reserve Component Family Program Directors/Managers network to identify care and service providers in all areas
- Reduce gaps and duplications in services and support efforts

Our Partners

Our Partners include organizations that support Massachusetts Military Servicemembers, Veterans and their Families within the State:

- Active, Reserve and National Guard Components
- Federal, State and Local Government Agencies
- Private Non-profit Organizations
- Veteran Service Organizations
- Business Organizations and Chambers of Commerce
