NRHS School Building Committee

Chairwoman Codianne advised of the MGL regarding the role of the School Committee in the selection of School Building Committee. Chairwoman Codianne advised that she has been on a couple phone conference with BSBA and spoke with Tom Ryan who voiced some concerns that happened on the Center School. Chairwoman Codianne advised she expects two votes, one to determine size of the committee and one to determine who will visit on the committee. Superintendent Clenchy reviewed the template from MSBA and reviewed each category. Each member of the SC shared their thoughts on the building committee makeup. The School Committee came to a consensus of having a range of 15-25 members. The Committee discussed qualifications desired to fill each category and who should have voting rights. The Committee decided on how many in each category to be included, Superintendent will chose the individuals from those who have expressed interest, final building committee will be voted on at the next School Committee meeting.
