

The Good News

September 2022

---

- Representatives from Reliant Credit Union were on campus in late August to deliver a generous donation of school supplies for elementary students at Southlawn. New this year: Dozens of brand new backpacks!
- IHS seniors Katie May Chalone and Charlie Bohrer wowed West Irondequoit staff with their voices on opening day September 1st. The talented duo also sang the national anthem at the Town of Irondequoit's 9/11 ceremony on September 11th.
- Auditions for the IHS Fall Drama "Once Upon A Teen" started this week and continue next Tuesday. It hits the stage in December. Also recently announced: Lion King Jr. is the Dake musical in November and Mama Mia the IHS musical next March.
- The West Irondequoit Foundation hosted four class reunion tours at IHS over the summer and on Saturday hosts its third Cornhole Tournament at the Irondequoit Sports Center. The event is expected to raise more than $15,000 dollars.
- The newer tradition of seniors decorating their parking spaces behind IHS and Dake has received major praise on district social media channels, drawing more than 50 comments alone on Facebook.
- IHS junior Kate Robinson is a featured student speaker at the Interrupt Racism summit next week with the Urban League of Rochester. Kate also has participated in an Our Voices Project film during Black History month and recently was the concept artist for a student photography project titled, "Silent Screams."