College Success 101

What steps must a 21st Century Scholar take to remain eligible for the 21st Century Scholarship? *

- Meet the college's Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) requirements
- Take and complete at least 30 credit hours each academic year
- File the FAFSA on time by the state deadline of April 15 and correct any issues before you enter college. You must correct any issues on your FAFSA online at FAFSA.ed.gov. An award cannot be created with an outstanding issue on your FAFSA.
- Continue to honor the 21st Century Scholars Pledge
- All of the Above

Having a job outside of college can help a student succeed financially and academically. *

- True, although it's recommended that students work no more than 10-15 hours per week
- False

Another key to college success is adjusting to college life. This can be done by: *

- Participating in orientation activities
- Participating in college activities and functions
- Getting involved with roommates and dorm activities
- Volunteering to help with college events
- Trying not to go home every weekend
- All of the Above
